When Will Strikes End ?

By C. LEON de ARYAN

The Wagner Labor Relations Act has demonstrated that strikes cannot be eliminated by legislation which gives power to Labor Racketeers to ride roughshod over everybody's rights.

The theory of it was that the RICH are rich because they are thieves and extorters; they are rich because they rob the workers of their due share in the products of their sweat. And because they are rich they are employers and must be curbed by turning them over to the mercies of "Labor". Hence the Wagner Act gave organized unions every power to dictate to the employers who were hog-tied to prevent self-defense against labor racketeering. And we see now the results.

The theory is wrong in that it calls the employers, business, the thieves. The moment you are a successful businessman, a producer, you are stigmatized as a criminal if you give employment to others. If you have no brains, no initiative to start and manage a business that can employ more than a handful, you are honest; but as soon as your vision reaches out where your products give employment to many, you become a crook.

Still, somewhere along the line somebody is stealing when the worker does not receive enough buying power to buy his own products. But the steal is perpetrated on both the businessman & the worker, while their native greed and rapacity prevents them from seeing the thief. They also want the privilege of stealing, hence they will not admit the truth.

The stealing is being done by the landowner as a land-lord, not by the businessman as a producer. But since every worker aspires to own his own home, he refuses to see where and how landowning becomes a racket, just as unioneering became a racket, as sweat-shops are a racket. The moment one says that the land-lord is the modern bandit, everybody resents it, because to own your home and business is everybody's hope and dream. But home and business is not land.

Using the word land-lord out of context does the mischief. A landlord is one who holds title to the land and as a result thereof has the privilege to charge all comers RENT for the use of HIS land.

Of course, nobody owns land outright, it's a mirage, because the state takes the land away from you as soon as you fail to pay taxes. The state takes it from you under condemnation proceedings whenever it wants it. You may or you may not receive true value under condemnation. The Fact of the matter is you RENT the land today from the state and that RENT is reflected in your taxes. You have lease-title subject to payment of the tax.

Once you bear in mind that TITLE is vested in the state and that you hold it only as long as you admit that the state REALLY owns it while you are PAYING taxes for the privilege of secondary title, then the thing becomes clear and self-evident.

Hence the true picture is: The State, thru eminent domain, holds absolute title to all land, sublets it to you conditionally during payment of RENT, called taxes, and endows you for that duration with sovereign rights of exploitation.

This is the old feudalistic system which the USA foolishly took over as an inheritance from the British. We did away with the king but maintained his prerogatives, vesting them in the State, who, like the king, sublets them to those who pay him tribute.

The thieving is done in fixing the amount of the tribute.

If the land-lord's taxes are equivalent to the benefit bestowed upon the land by the government and society as a whole, THEN the bargain is honest. If the tax is only 50 per cent of the value of the land, then the land-lord gets a thieving advantage. THAT tells the story.

As soon as the land-lord pays only half his taxes, or less, and you RENT his land from him on a lease, for the FULL value of the land, naturally, he pockets the difference between what you pay to him and what the State collects from him. In this case 50 per cent of the full land value RENT. He never MADE the land, anymore than you did, but the State sublets to him the sovereign privilege of collecting tribute from you and does not charge HIM the FULL RENT value which he charges YOU. Thus the State is running in the red, because the land value is NOT produced by the land-lord, but by all the people of the community and our government services. If the people were to move away, the landvalue would dwindle over night.

HERE then lies the thievery. And as the government runs in the red, excise taxes, manufacturing taxes, income taxes, sales taxes and all the burocrats in the world become tax-eaters OUT OF THE WAGE-DOLLAR of the working man who must buy the products of his labor at TAX-INFLATED prices. Then the State starts taxing IMPROVEMENTS AND BUILDINGS, taxes services. The fool working man as well as the businessman, does not realize that they are paying the TAXES of the land-lords, the FIFTY per cent which the State failed to collect in full valuation PLUS all the salaries of the snoopers, burocrats, nuisance tax collectors, courts, sheriffs and attornies who hagle over tax-enforcement and it ALL CUTS DOWN THE BUYING VALUE OF THE WAGE-Dollar.

To protect the landed bandits, then, the SANHEDRIN tells you that you need more "protective legislation to protect the workers." Then the tug of war ensues between employees and employers who also are robbed by the land-lord's tax reductions. The landed lord becomes the banker because he gets a 50 per cent rebate, and as a banker he gets additional privileges to issue the money with which he pays his 50 per cent land-tax and to buy stocks in all industry, throwing the independent businessman to the wolves.

The whole process is so simple, but because every working man and every businessman hopes to do what the land-lords do and the bankers, someday, and calls it success, this stupid attitude produces strife and the Sanhedrin, the Devil, gets the hindmost.

Scandal of the Food Parcels to Germany

By LILLIAN SCOTT TROY

Americans have a right to be suspicious about the strange handling of the matter of food parcels to Germany from the United States by the Post Office, the Department of Commerce in Washington, and by the American authorities who handle these parcels after they reach Germany.

The scandal of the American blood plasma in China which was disclosed by the Red Cross, is a yardstick by which we can measure our logical reason to wonder just what is back of the peculiar situation obtaining about our parcels to starving and inarticulate people in Germany.

All the guesses which have come to my attention appear to have some substantial base for their expression. Here are a few of them, and the most likely, according to my opinion: If out of the first lot of 600,000 food parcels sent to Germany from this country, over 50,000 were "confiscated" and were not given to the people to whom we sent them—then what has become of those parcels?

The excuse given by the politicians was that Americans were warned not to include any writing or literature of any kind in the parcels, and were dumb enough to do so—and thus caused their relatives and friends in Germany to lose all the articles in these parcels. Well, that does not answer the question as to what was done with these parcels aggregating several hundred thousand dollars, if we allow the modest sum of only $10.00 for each parcel. And, that's only one months' garnering.

Are these confiscated parcels being distributed to starving people free of cost, or some energetic people getting hold of them to sell at a profit, or are they simply destroyed. We don't know. We would like to know.

The next point for some suspicion is that some group or racial combination, desires to discourage Americans from sending these parcels to Germany, and thus people are being discouraged right here in the United States at some of the Post Offices by clerks in the parcel divisions with false information as to what they may, or may not, send in their parcels.

There is no financial profit that we can observe in this latter theory. But we can take into consideration the cruel satisfaction some groups take in uniting to cause the stoppage of these parcels, which they have, as a group or groups, tried to obstruct from the very start after the war ended. I feel confident of this last theory, and am suspicious of the first theory.

I am not of German descent, and so perhaps I can look at the matter of this cruel outrage in a different light, and purely from the standpoint of my rights as an American citizen—leaving out any starving Germans for the initial presentation of the argument. And, just because of that American standpoint, I have gone out and made as careful a survey of this second theory as possible—and I have landed in a maze of confusion and false statements and downright lies on the part of some of the Postal Clerks, all tending to discourage people in this country from sending parcels to Germany, and lying to them about articles which these clerks say are prohibited—which are not prohibited. I have a collection of contradictory letters from some of the authorities and many of the big business firms which are astounding.

But, I have learned this: if you wish to be able to save your relatives and friends in Germany who are now going about with the starvation cavities pronounced in their cheeks, nostrils, temples and necks— you must unite as Americans for your rights as citizens.

If a postal clerk tells you that you cannot send certain articles which are among those vital to save the lives of your people in Germany, and the law says you can, then that clerk is guilty of taking from you your rights as citizens under our Constitution—and is liable to ten years in prison! If he does this knowingly he is guilty, and if he does this knowingly but because of some higher authority instructing him to do so, he is just as guilty as a man whose boss tells him to commit murder.

From my own experience with some of these clerks, I am confident that they knew they were giving me false information.

I went to nine different post offices and posed my questions, and found all of them but the one here in Pasadena in agreement on two very important matters relative to articles which could or could not be included in these food parcels to Germany.

Yesterday I went to the highest authority in the Los Angeles Field Office of the Department of Commerce, the Department in Washington which grants the General Licenses for the export of these so-called Gift Parcels. I had been in correspondence with this Department and found that I had been given false information at the Pasadena Post Office, and so I went there to say that notwithstanding the correct information from the Department of Commerce's Field Office in Los Angeles, I was still being subjected to the rulings of clerks in Pasadena which was in direct opposition to this higher ruling.

The young lady in charge told me that she had personally telephoned to Pasadena to tell them that they were incorrect, and that they denied having made any such rulings as I complained of to her in my letter. I told her I could bring on an army of people to support me that all of us had been told the same thing. She made profuse excuses for the clerks saying that some of them were not yet very experienced, and some had 'different interpretations' of the Government rulings.

Now we have it! Different interpretations!

Who ordered different interpretations of the written orders of the higher authorities in the Department of Commerce and the United States Post Office? Does any person of mature intelligence believe for a second that clerks would dare to defy the postal regulations in that manner unless they knew that they were safe in so doing? (To be concluded)

The Christian Spirit Must Prevail

To my Friends and Wellwishers:

Those of you who have watched my work during the many years past are aware of its nature. I get nothnig out of it except the ability to do more and better. All I am and have goes into it.

I accepted a new task, since it is of importance and nobody else seems to realize its importance and that it must be done. It is way beyond my present means in every respect. But that is no deterrent. I am used to that side of my work. My means come as I proceed. It has always been thus and I have never given up.

At this Christmas season, now, it is up to you to help me win. I need your FAITH, your prayers, your LOVE and every penny you can spare. It will take hundreds and thousands of dollars and a terrific amount of detail work. Whether I hire competent people to do it with me, or whether I take time out to do the essential part myself, either way the expense is way beyond my present means.

If you followed my work closely, you might guess what it is and how far reaching the effect and example will go. For the sake of the Christian Spirit in America, what is left of it, at this Christmas season you will do yourself and the world a service to go the limit of your ability. I am doing it, why not you, too. That is the only way to prove that we mean what we say when we sing:

"Glory to God in the Highest, PEACE on earth and Good Will towards man."

Wishing you a THOUGHTFUL Christmas season, for really merry we cannot be in this engulfing world misery. Let's not be callous hypocrites.

Sincerely, KOSTI.

"Bell's Promises Like F. D. R.'s" Says William Kullgren

The Beacon Light Herald, Atascadero

NOW BELL IS A JEW; KULLGREN TOO IS CIRCUMCIZED

If you had been taught to think straight you could have seen what I saw in the beginning; take Mankind United. I read their book, and I perceived a liberal dose of the teachings of Karl Marx; of course I had to know what Karl Marx taught, or I wouldn't have recognized it, that's where I had the advantage of most people. You see, I spent my whole life delving into movements and leaders. I also saw some metaphysical double-talk; Bell, of course, was a Christian Science practitioner at one time, and so you can see where that came in. Then there were a few Pollyanna phrases from the Bible, mostly separated from the context of the real meaning; that was to sweeten it up and catch the suckers, and it did the work.

FATHERHOOD OF GOD, BROTHERHOOD OF MAN, IMPOSSIBLE

Mankind United was and is a racket, it was never a sincere movement; the promises of Bell are like the promises of Stalin & Roosevelt, they don't mean anything. I am in touch with a man who is a profound thinker and has been around a good deal; and he informs me that Bell is a Jew, which explains a whole lot. But regardless of whether he is or not, the teachings of the movement are a hodge-podge of contradictions, and no clear thinker could ever be taken in by them, the very name is enough, 'Mankind United'. The Bible tells you that mankind cannot be united: that there are two types and two leaders, the Christ and the anti-Christ, and you can never unite those two groups. 'Never' is a long time; and we are coming to a showdown, when these two leaders and groups will clash. The world today is ruled by the anti-Christ, and you only have to look around you to see the evidence.

KULLGREN'S RIGHT GROUP, GUARANTEED

And so I am asking you to get into the right group where you belong; and you leaders, I am asking you to quit mixing the two forces; quit carrying water on both shoulders like the politicians, because you are bringing confusion into the ranks of your followers, and you will have to pay the price of your doing so, regardless of your good intentions. The world is crying for light, and it is getting confusion; it is asking for spiritual bread and it is receiving a

"JOIN MY RACKET, EXTRA SPECIAL"

I believe I have drawn around me as fine a group of people as exists in America, there are none better than the Beacon Light family; for with a few exceptions they stood by loyally during the hell of the past five years, yea, ten years many of them. Now I am going to ask a question: Shall we crystallize the group by forming a headquarters and retreat? Do you think it is necessary, do you think it is wise?

Up to date I have advised you to go out into independent groups and do the best you can by co-operating one with another. But at the back of my mind, for years, I have seen the picture, the necessity of setting up teaching groups, schools of preparation. "But," you say, "there are already many groups doing that." Yes, that is true; but I believe our group would be a little different, and I hope on a little higher level than some I know of, for I believe our people are of a little higher calibre than found in the general run of them.

Postal Inspectors Watching Deliveries

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

Your, Brand's and my complaints about the irregularity in the arrival of your paper here, which might get even worse the nearer we progressed toward the holidays, brought about the discussion of the problem with Post Office Inspector of the Main Post Office, New York City, in the course of which I was assured that a watch would from now on be kept over your shipments, which come to the Grand Central Annex Sta. North. I am to telephone to the inspector if further trouble should be experienced. Sincerely, KURT MERTIG.

WRITE TO SENATOR LANGER

Dear Kosti:

I suppose you noticed some typo. errors in Dec. 2 issue; guess you were away and did not read proof.

In comment on Brand's letter, one should not write to Senator William WAGNER (doubtless you meant LANGER).

Brisbane did not say TO Winchell but OF Winchell, "Hearst etc."

The suspended paper in Worcester, Mass., was the "Post", not the "Journal" although error might have been mine. I haven't my duplicate at hand at this moment, to check.

Usually your paper is remarkably free of typo. errors. — — — W. A.

Arthur Bell Served 3 Days In Jail For "Contempt"

LOS ANGELES,—Last week Arthur L. (the Voice) Bell appeared with his attorney Russell E. Parsons, at the county jail and surrendered to serve the 3 day jail sentence imposed on him by Superior Court Judge Henry M. Willis, on Nov. 30, 1945, for "contempt of court".

The "contempt" arose out of the fact that the Judge summarily, without a hearing, appointed R. E. Allen receiver of Christ's Church of the Golden Rule, upon request of Robert W. Kenny, attorney general of California. Kenny had his former law partner appointed to this plunder job when the CIO pulled political strings to destroy Bell's Church because it did not surrender to these red labor racketeers in matters of employment. Kenny, as head of the Jewish-red outfit "Mobilization of Democracy", thereupon brought suit in Superior Court to have the non-profit corporation dissolved on trumped up charges of "fraud", Kenny being the fraud as an Attorney General. Judge Willis responded to Kenny's un-American and un-Constitutional request and abuse of official power by appointing Allen receiver and ordering Bell to surrender books and properties to Kenny's former law partner to help destroy the Church. Naturally, Bell refused to commit spiritual and financial suicide and extend this to his 800 odd followers in the Church. For this he was adjudicated "in contempt of court".

Well no American can have anything but genuine contempt for an un-American Judge and Attorney General who thus violate the U. S. Constitution they are sworn to uphold, by ordering a religious organization to submit to dictation WITHOUT A DAY IN COURT, WITHOUT A HEARING, and mind you, turn over its assets to a bosom friend of Commie-Kenny who last week had the effrontery to ask Referee Brink for $1.500 in fees for himself as receiver and $650 for his "attorney" Bailey A. Norman, to be paid out of the Church's bankrupt estate.

Bell appealed the contempt sentence up to the U. S. Supreme Court. But the courts hold that a judge has power to tell you to commit suicide and if you refuse, you are in "contempt". Such is the tyranny of little morons elevated to high places by a Newdeal raw deal.

Defense Fund for Joan McBride

Editor The Broom:

Herewith $5.00, 4.00 renews my subscription. $1.00 for Joan McBride defense fund.

Were I compelled to give up all my reading material the Broom would be the last to go. My sense of justice prompts me to contribute my bit to the defense of Mrs. McBride.

There are some matters I should like to discuss with you and your readers; but at this time, time will not permit.

Most sincerely, H. P. RULOFF, Sr.

Dear Sir:

Not conscious of that the Sanhedrin, its confederates, and Christian renegades of every shade were celebrating today I huried to the post office to send you a few dollars for Joan. On my way home I succeeded to add two more dollars to my ten.

I've just returned home, learned of Joan's plight which could be anybody's distress who's courageous enough to oppose Mosaic justice in being kind and helpful to others, especially to true Christians.

Had I an opportunity I would have done the same as Joan McBride has done. I should not think it a crime or violation of any sort but my duty to exercise the pledge our nation has given at the Geneva Convention namely to repect, to protect, and to safeguard International Laws of which we thus have become a party; and last but not least, to carry out the tenets contained therein ourselves, even if Supreme Court Justice Jackson and the members of both houses would think otherwise.

Only look at them the members, how adorable they look when seated in Congress—our legislators the fine jobholders, and all! What good can spring from their mind?

These people send out their agents to befoul the mind of the farmer. They feed him on fine phrases such as: the forgotten man, and they brag about the hard fight they wage as referees in the struggle between the western plaughholder and the eastern bond-shareholder only that they can take better advantage of him in time to come.

Comes the Jewish Gentleman along, like Pandora with many secret troubles in her box, to occupy the office of the teacher to ask: "Who's in favor of collective farming?

"Raise your hand, please!

"Good! Very Good!

"Who's in favor of the Establishment of the Soviet Union of the United States of America?

"Raise your hand!"

A very few know what the monster of "collective farming" looks like; but as for me I know damn well that it isn't a barbecue "mit einem Haufen Biersaufen" or a Thanksgiving dinner party at a manor.

For this they pay in money. They prepare their own doom.

Certainly America is crazy, Kurt Mertig.

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

Please find enclosed $8 for a Thanksgiving dinner.

Please put some in the Joan McBride fund; with my best wishes.

Mrs. C. H.

* * * *

Dear Kosti:

Thanks for the interesting letter and the enclosed money.

I am answering you a few lines now to let you know I am having copies made of our indictments and will mail it to you immediately.

You are the only one who understands me—my way of reasoning and what my motive was. Everyone here disgusts me with their excuses for me. The general opinion is that I couldn't have been quite right in my head. No one seems to have any sympathy for the sufferings inflicted, outside their immediate family circle of people in Germany, to me it was "a cause" and I would be willing to sacrifice my life for it if I could accomplish something. But try find an attorney who will bring that out—and if I go against his wishes—what is the use of paying him that high fee?

Wish you could come and be my attorney, if that were possible, if we paid your expense.

Thanks for THE BROOM, I am passing it on but it wouldn't surprise me if none subscribes, altho they say they will. It certainly is pitiful to read about the conditions in Germany and all of Europe, it breaks my heart to read it and not being able to help those poor souls. It makes me ashamed to worry people with my little trouble when over there they have to suffer so much and there seems no end to this misery.

Well, Kosti, I will say good nite now, my cold is a little better, but Trude has a bad one and keeps me awake all nite coughing. Hope you are in good health.

It makes me happy that I have a few friends left who are for me and able to understand.

Love and best wishes to you and my friends of THE BROOM. JOAN.

* * * *

Dear Joan:

I am not an attorney admitted to law practice, so could not appear for you in court. There are other ways in which I can bring out the right defense and as long as you have true faith in me, that faith will produce results as it did once before.

Now you understand why I have had little use for your Germans in L. A. They, like those in Detroit and elsewhere, imagine they are sacred cows because they are Germans. To me a moron is a moron regardless of nationality and genealogy. I have no use for animals who think only of a feast of "Bier-saufen", and a "Leberwurst Fresserei", which I used to illustrate the point. Now you are finding them out. All over this nation the "German-Americans" are merely interested to save their next of kin over there but lack the intelligence which would make 10 million German-American voters a power in the conduct of this administration's treatment of Europe. And therefore they cannot even send food to their immediate kin and be sure it gets there.

Am enclosing the funds received last week for you.

Bilbo in the White House ?

My Dear Mr. de Aryan:

After all these terrible years it must do your soul good to see the political and social tide turning upon its evil communist drivers. If they have any sense they will now rapidly run for cover, for when that anti-communist tide reaches its full . . . all hell is going to break loose upon their fellow-traveler's heads. It has been said that association with communists is enough for conviction of treason to our government, and I go along with that conclusion. People who will play ball with the devil while that devil murders Christians in cold blood before their very eyes will deserve the contempt and disdain of all true patriots.

From events taking place all over this country, I draw the conclusion that the communists have lost this battle to conquer us . . . and am now wondering how soon they will awaken to this obvious fact. Our people are fast waking up, and even our dumb government officials are catching on to the public alarm. These communists no longer have government protection for their hellish intimidations of real Americans, and when the American people as a whole, take out after them . . . just watch our law enforcement officials laugh up their sleeves and pretend to be unable to do anything. Their answer to the communists' call for help and protection will be: "HELL! IT'S THE PEOPLE'S WILL, and BESIDES, THOSE ARE OUR PEOPLE WHO ARE AFTER YOU! AFTER ALL, YOU DIRTY DOGS ASKED FOR IT, NOW DIDN'T YOU?! H'ray! H'ray! for OUR side!"

While we may find all kinds of faults with President Truman, we surely need to hail him for firing a whole string of communist stooges formerly intrenched in our Government. I simply jumped up and cheered when he kicked out poison-minded O. John Rogge. That Rogge is as blind as a bat as far as the thinking of real Americans is concerned. All the communists and their fellow travelers have a blind spot which keeps them from seeing that we sincere patriots will have only contempt for their satanic laws which they stampede onto our national and state statute books. Their F. E. P. C., for instance, or any law which attempts to shut off our free speech when we want to call a dog what he is.

They cannot see that if they suceed in un-seating Senator Bilbo, we will rally around him and sooner or later place him in the White House. We have the overpowering numbers to do it, and OUR people will fall into line swiftly when they really notice the good old tide in full swing against the polluters of public morals. Every decent person in these almost-despoiled United States must sense that something has been wrong with us for several years now. . . . and that it has been all planned, diabolically planned . . . to pollute and demoralize every man's daughter in the land. Any man who will stand idly by and see this filthy process continue is worse than a pig wallowing in mud day in and day out. He ought to be despised and spit upon by all his fellowmen.

Yes, the communists have waited too long . . . they have LOST the battle! Their slogans are losing their fire, and are in fact proving to be so many boomerangs which are returning to knock the brains out of those who threw them. American officials who have formerly played up to these beasts dressed up in human clothes are now frantically attempting to shake them off and get fumigated. But WE won't forget! When they had the opportunity to speak up and draw off some of the fire leveled at we frontline crusaders they failed us miserably, and worse still, aided and abetted them in persecuting us.

OUR people can no longer stand by and see these communists force laws on the books to stifle us and in the end kill us off. Note how they are going after the KKK. Any fool can see the idea behind all this pseudo-legal business of crushing any and all Gentile outfits before they even get started. But they won't be able to stop the tide much longer . . . for it will be so powerful it will sweep them before it like dead leaves from the trees in a storm. If WE hadn't always won in the END, we wouldn't even be here now . . . for OUR foes are inhuman brutes, and will slaughter each and everyone of us if we lose. There can be no mutual peace with the sons of satan, for THEY aim to rule by machine guns.

Please publish this, as I am not afraid of those communist gangsters. President Truman; Atty. Gen'l. Tom Clark; Governor Dewey; many Senators and hundreds of other men know about me and my writings, and not one of them has written me a word of reprimand. They KNOW I am writing the TRUTH, therefore those devils had better not touch a hair on my head. I have been open and above board from the start. . . . with nothing to hide. Can THEY say as MUCH?

Your faithful, fighting Nordic,
IRA CALVIN WHITE
P. O. Lock Drawer H., Brookline 46, Mass.

My Dear Mr. White:

Kindly don't mistake the THOUGHT presented in THE BROOM concerning Senator Bilbo, the Communists and violence vs. Christian and Aryan principles.

The fact that Senator Bilbo opposes atheistic, Mongolian-Jewish-Negroid Communism does not exclusively qualify him for the presidency of the USA and "we" shall oppose such notions with all our might. It would be a repetition of the Hitler tragedy; it would not improve the USA but destroy it as surely as Hitler invited destruction.

Let us get this matter clear. The Christ, as the prototype of the white or Aryan race, is not given to violence or violation of principle but to the LOVE of principle and its fullfilment. The people of the USA are proud of heroics in war and Senator Bilbo, you must remember started out as a Newdealer and equally proud of war heroics as well as violations of the U.S. Constitution.

The American system works by consent. We have consented to abide by the Constitution, IF the provisions are not good we have the means and power to amend the Constitution, not by violation but by legal processes.

It is not right to place the Negro on equal footing with the white man in politics and social life. But the white man brought the Negro to this continent to exploit his labor. Later the white man gave him equal legal rights as a citizen. Now why take it out on the Negro as Bilbo does? It is not Aryan nor Christian.

The proper way to proceed is to amend the Constitution making it fit the truth of the facts, namely that the USA is an association of white people for the expression in practice of Aryan-Christian ideals. You see, after the next world war which the present confusion of rights is already cooking up, this very thing is going to happen, a re-definition of what this "experiment" called the USA government really is. But as long as we swear to follow the Constitution, let's do it and pay the penalty for our sins against the Negro, the results will teach the slobbering Negro-kissers a few facts of life, painfully.

Only when the Negro will know that we mean what we say will he feel safe, here or abroad. When we say he is a citizen, when we say we are Christians and love the Golden Rule, but then deny him his citizenship and use violence and intimidation, as Bilbo advocates and does, we are neither Americans, nor Aryans, nor Christians—we are Bilbo followers, lawless, treacherous. Sincerely, C. LEON de Aryan.

Message of Holy Zarathushtra

Zoroastrian Library, 3560 Sixth Ave., San Diego 3, California

(Conclusion)

THE PATH OF ASHA

"There is but one Path," said Holy Zarathushtra, "and that is the Path of 'Asha' (righteousness), all others are no-Paths." The life of saintly Zarathushtra proved that man cannot attain to Absolute Bliss by the acquiring of Knowledge (Gnana Marg) alone, or by prayers (Bhakti Marg) alone, but by actually living a life of virtue and purity and by developing the powers of the mind through knowledge. "Happiness come to him," said Zarathushtra, "through whom happiness flows unto others." These teachings have since become immortalized, and every prophet has emphasized these teachings in one way or another.

IDEAS OF HEAVEN AND HELL

After expounding that life did not cease by death, but was ever continuing, he revealed to mankind the states of Heaven and Hell. Man's good and meritorious thoughts, words and actions helped to move him into a condition of Bliss and Happiness, and that was his Heaven both in this life and in the life beyond the veil of death. Likewise all evil thoughts, words and actions tended to bring to man grief, disappointment and suffering, and that was his Hell.

"Listen all ye," said Zarathushtra, "it is only through the nature and quality of your thoughts, words and deeds that you can enter into the conditions of Heaven or Hell." Mankind thus learnt for the first time the principle of "you reap as you sow."

ABOUT OVERCOMING EVIL

It is with a pure heart and pure mind that man can overcome the Evil in others. "Cast off the evil that lurks within you, if you seek to overcome the evil in others," was Zarathushtra's teaching.

GOD TRANSCENDS HIS CREATIONS

His teachings revealed that God having created His creations through the Law of Asha Vahishta did not allow His creations to go to wreck and ruin, but that He was indwelling in each of His creations, and yet transcended His creations. Thus the Essence of God, the Divine Spark ("Farohar" in Zarathushtra's theology) is ever present in God's creations.

SOUL AND FREE-WILL

In Zarathushtra's theology man is endowed with a "Soul", and to that soul God has assigned a freedom of choice. The individual could be good or base according to the choice of his soul and the bent of his mind. On his thoughts, words and deeds depended the "Ushta"—Absolute Bliss—of himself in this life, and of his soul after death.

After revealing the nine component elements of the human being Zarathustra has taught about the state or conditions of life after death and throughout this highly philosophical teaching he has emphasized the need for uplifting the condition of the soul, by a constant adherence on the part of the soul to the dictates of the indwelling presence of God in man.

HOW ZARATHUSHTRA'S MESSAGE HELPS THE INDIVIDUAL

For purposes of practical life the Message of Zarathushtra guides mankind:

(a) to the assimilation of knowledge so as to dispel the darkness of ignorance and to promote mental illumination.

(b) to lead a life of sovereign virtue as did Zarathushtra, and

(c) to understand that man can see God, can hear the Voice of God and can be in close communion with God, by perpetually combating evil in any form, and by rendering unceasing service to humanity.

Zarathushtra's Message revealed, that man possessed all the Attributes of God in a greater or less measure, and that what was required of man was to develop these attributes to the fullest extent, in order to reach Zarathushtra's ideal of "One God, One Law, One Divine Event towards which the whole creation is moving". That Divine Event foreshadowed by Zarathushtra was "Frashogard"—a state of freshening or progress in which evil will ultimately disappear from the world, heralding the advent of "Soshyos"—the prophet to come, when men shall rise in bodies that will know not the taint of evil.

Words and teachings of such prophetic magnitude had never been heard before, and modern science is but gradually awakening to the great Truths that Zarathushtra had uttered to humanity in the grey dawn of human life.

Is Arthur (the Voice) Bell a Swindler ?

Dear Sir:

I have been intimately associated with the movement "Mankind United" since 1937. I have often thought I would like to see the "picture" after it had passed thru the process of a keen analytical mind. Therefore I read your "reports" on "Christ's Church of the Golden Rule" with a great deal of interest and think you have covered the ground completely as far as you know.

Now, leaving all the quibbling and fighting and personal grudges to those who enjoy unpleasant details I really would like to know what your reaction is to this picture:

A movement which, during a period of eight to ten years, has contacted and received sympathy and financial support from at least a million people (Mr. Bell's statement) for the purpose of establishing a "UNIVERSAL SERVICE CORPORATION" based on the principles of the Golden Rule but "Non-sectarian, Non-political and non-profit".

AFTER accumulating a fund sufficient to warrant organization ONE man decides to organize a CHURCH and sends out the applications for membership that are so strict that if a member reads a book or communicates with ANY one which is not approved of by THE man that member forfeits everything and can be turned out on the street in his or her B. V. D.'s which they have no LEGAL right to wear AND last but not least the financial part is then OWNED by 717 "loyal" followers.

THEN those who worked and skimped and sacrificed for their highest ideals are told that "they have no part in it" because they had enough common sense left to refuse to sign away their last hope of justice on earth or favor in Heaven.

No matter what your reaction is to this procedure you must admit that it was a shrewd way to accumulate several million dollars for a FEW people and even a large percentage of the 717 are over 75 years old. So in a short time that too will fade out and then all would be smooth sailing for the few.

If you care to publish this you have my permission to do so.

Very truly yours, DANDRIDGE COOK.

Dear Mrs. Cook:

As you see I am publishing your letter in full.

Will you please read it again carefully so you realize what you said.

Then read the paragraph where you say "because they had enough common sense left to refuse to sign away their last hope of justice on earth or favor in Heaven".

Also note what you said in conclusion: "No matter what your reaction is . . . you MUST ADMIT that it was a shrewd way to accumulate several million dollars for a FEW people . . . "

Why do you claim that I MUST ADMIT your conclusions? Have you proven them necessarily true or are they your suspicions?

From all that you have written, from all that I have heard in the court room, and I heard all that can be said in this matter on both sides, the lawyers and the witnesses left nothing to guess about, I come to an entirely different conclusion. Because YOUR mind can see nothing else, does that prove Bell and the FEW crooked? Could it not be that you conveniently, or ignorantly, left out a few pieces that would complete the whole and the true picture?

You are speaking at first of the M. U. movement, saying that it received within ten years support from a quarter million people. I have read the book and I have heard all testimony about it. It was a movement to produce an audience of 200 million people to release to it a "program" calculated to do away with war and cut-throat competition, once it's accepted and practiced.

Now did you during that time "donate" to an "insurance company" for a definite annuity and security for yourself till you died, is that your concept of M. U.?

Or did you see a vision, a possibility by which 200 million people of the same mind could be brought together to listen to a program and vote on it?

If your intent and purpose was to buy an annuity and Bell took your money for the sale of an annuity, then he was crooked.

But if you contributed without hopes of return, without strings, to a pioneering movement to end war, then, you will be able to follow the picture and see what I found to be the facts in this case.

If you did not work for the vision but for personal profit, naturally, you were not working in the Lord's vineyard, but like everybody in this world you wanted quid pro quo. You were trading and now you complain that you did not get what you paid for. Is M. U. a proposition by which you were to buy security for self or is it a proposition by which you work for an ideal, regardless of consequences to yourself?

The point at issue is your own choice. Did you or did you not work for an ideal? Was your covenant with God or was it with Bell? Was your concept of the ideal true to God or was your concept the convenient mental process of buying insurance for your old age? Was your vision tainted with fear for self and you were willing to buy insurance for self?

If your original concept of the ideal was true and out of this vision you registered and donated funds and labor to M. U. to bring about HIS RULE in earth, then why did you not stay with the ideal, come hell and high water?

The "Universal Service Corporation", according to M. U., was to be established after the 200 million audience had registered. I did not read or hear any witness or lawyer state that it was to be established "AFTER accumulating a fund sufficient to warrant organization", as you say.

I am speaking from experience. I give my life to my ideals and take what comes, regardless. I am not rich in dollars and cents, but I am wealthier than all the wealth of the USA put together. The USA is mortgaged to the usurers for blood-money, war-bonds, etc. My spirit and conscience is FREE from encumbrance, I am not tied down to debts of murder. THE BROOM still comes out and I am still alive !

From the facts brought out in court in the White "fraud" case I learned that Bell was going on with M. U. till war was declared, and that THEN he decided to form a Church to save what could be saved.

War was declared: that made FDR the dictator over our lives and possessions. Every person living in the USA became FDR's slave, had to register for service in the war. It started from 18 up to 60 and 65 years old. Anyone who spoke against this slavery to murder-plunder, lend-lease of our souls to the Devil incarnate in FDR, was counted "seditious".

THEN is when to stem this tyranny of the anti-Christ over our lives, Bell figured that under the U. S. Bill of Rights a "church" would yet have some chance to serve the Christ, while a loose organization like the M. U. had of necessity to go underground.

You claim that Bell started the Church to rob all of you who had contributed and hand it over to a FEW insiders. I listened to all testimonies on both sides and I have had talks with Bell and I found nothing to support your claim.

Had you dared what Bell dares, be openly "seditious" for the PEACE ideal, for the Prince of Peace, in place of the war criminal FDR, you would be able to THINK with Bell, think with me and see what we see. None but he that persisted to the END reaches the Kingdom of Heaven.

Since FDR had all power, was THE dictator over life and property and could draft everybody, could get all the money and properties he wanted to kill and destroy IN DEFIANCE OF GOD and HIS Commandments, and the courts who had taken oaths "So help me God" sustained FDR against Bell, the impact had to be met on its own level: Bell had to have powers as Commander-in-Chief in the Christ-service, as FDR had in Hell's service. There could be no bickering, no squabbling about anything, but obedience. Otherwise all of you in that group who work for PEACE go under, or give up.

You and everyone in America is mortgaged to the hilt to pay for the HELL we made of earth. Bell figured that as a church he will save a good deal which YOU would otherwise have to pay for WAR-debts, and he would use it for the Christ-service instead of the anti-Christ. THAT is why he formed a Church.

Those of you who did not trust Bell that he gives his life in the Christ-service, naturally could not enlist in his church-army to give battle to the Legions of Hell. You made your "common sense" choice.

What are you kicking about? You did not want to enlist with Bell and fight against the Devil in war-time as Bell and his 717 dared then and dare now. How are you entitled to any single benefit that accrues to those who are true to the Christ vision of that group?

In conclusion let me ask you this: Since you used your "common sense" when you determined that you would not entrust your life to the skipper of the ark of covenant piloted by Bell in the dangerous seas of a world at war, why don't you abide by your choice and have faith in it? Why are you wasting your life throwing rocks at the ark, admitting that you lost out thru your "common sense" choice, while Bell and his crew succeed in their undertaking!

Was it Bell that kicked you out in the cold or did you choose not to join the Church?

Woman, stand by your choice and act like a Christian. If your concept of the Christ forbids you to follow Bell, then be true to THAT concept NOW. Follow the Christ and you will find PEACE and PLENTY. By envying Bell and throwing rocks at his FEW who dared join him to oppose the war-makers openly and above board and take their chances on "sedition" with all its consequences in a war-crazy world, you are not following your Christ, or are you?

Sincerely, KOSTI.

NEW YORK,—Frank Glaser, 51, traffic manager for the International General Electric Co., was fined $15 in Weekend Court on the complaint of Ray Lev, celebrated concert pianist who is Jewish and proud of it. Miss Lev says Glaser complained: "The place is full of Hebes. Too many Hebes. Are you a ———Hebe?" The artist brought in two policemen, who arrested Glaser and lodged him in the E. 51st St. station over night. Magistrate Abraham M. Bloch fined him next day.

Republicans Should Investigate the "Justice" Department and Do Some Fumigating

By WASHINGTON ADAMS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30, (Special)—One of the first tasks of the New Republican congress should be a thorough investigation of the so-called "Justice Department". Especial attention should be given to the conduct of former attorney-general Biddle and his staff of prosecutors in the Moscow mass-persecution trials who have been severely criticized and denounced by the capital's leading daily paper, the Washington Times Herald, and also by the Washington Post, which had helped initiate the persecution.

Most persons confuse the so-called "Justice" Department with the third branch of the government, the "Judiciary," regarding them as one, or practically synonymous. The Judiciary (judges and their courts) came to us in the Constitution. The Justice Department was created by Congress as an arm or branch of the EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, under President Washington; it is subject to the same scrutiny as the Executive by the Congress.

Most Americans, including most Congressmen, have forgotten that the supreme power in our Federal government is the Congress, which has the power to repeal every law that its predecessors ever passed (except the very few which increased the salaries of officials); and also the national legislature has the power to impeach and throw out of office any President, Federal judge, or other Federal official.

It is the duty of our Congress to scrutinize the acts of every official servant of the people, and that even includes the Federal judiciary.

This great truth was first proclaimed by Representative Randolph of Virginia in 1805 in the impeachment trial of U. S. Supreme Court Justice Samuel Chase (who by the way was a far greater man than any present member of the high court). Chase was charged with misconduct in certain sedition trials. Congressman Randolph said (I quote from memory): "I had heard much talk of Chase's actions in court, and as it was my Constitutional duty, as a member of Congress, to be on the lookout for misconduct on the part of officials with an eye toward their impeachment and removal if guilty, I visited his court, and found my fears justified. Other Congressmen joined me in similar investigations, which have resulted in this impeachment resolution." So the House overwhelmingly impeached Chase, but the Senate lacked the two-thirds majority necessary for his removal.

It is widely believed here in Washington that the Justice Department is strongly influenced by certain Red Jews, who caused the J. Department to initiate persecutions of several score right-wing Anti-Communists and Anti-New Dealers, under a vicious misinterpretation of a law passed to cover Communists in their peacetime efforts to cause insubordination in the armed forces.

That is covered in Section 9 of Title 18, U. S. Code. But under Title 10, which makes it ILLEGAL even to be a member of the Communist party (or any party advocating violent revolution), the so-called "Justice" Department has never drawn a single indictment against even ONE COMMUNIST in America ! !

CONGRESS can pass a resolution of censure against the J. Department for crimes of OMISSION as well as crimes of commission, thus jerking them to taw, or they can impeach those caught in the dragnet of investigation and throw them out.

JUDGE LAWS' WISE RULING

Great credit is due to chief Justice Laws of the U. S. District Court for dismissing the Department's unjust cases against a total of 42 defendants—only 26 of whom still remain under persecution.

Few here in Washington believe that the Supreme Court will sustain the Department's appeal or overrule Justice Laws. Congress should, in fact, rebuke those in the Department who violated their oath of office in denying the defendants a "SPEEDY TRIAL", guaranteed by the Constitution.

Congress should rebuke the Federal prosecutors for calling themselves "the government". They are only the erring agents of those who administer the government—the government is a republic, with Congress making the laws, the executive administering them, and the courts trying law violations. No one man, nor set of men, is "the government".

JEFFERSON'S first act on taking the oath of office as President was to pardon those serving time for alleged "sedition" and he had Congress to reimburse them for their unjust mistreatment.

Congress should follow Jefferson's example.

Red Jews in the Justice Department, it is said, have been angered and chagrined that the 26 Anti-Communists, whom they tried to railroad to prison under the lying and deceitful charge of "sedition", were successful in having their cases dismissed.

These Reds had held the 26 victims as a cat holds a mouse, hoping for some turn of evidence that would enable them finally to convict them, as a warning to any other Anti-Reds who should arise and criticise "ALIEN MINORITY" CONTROL IN AMERICA.

If successful in their appeal to the high court (which few believe possible), the Reds plan to ask the judge to grant a severance and permit them to bring to trial some eight defendants—five native Americans and three German-born Americans (the latter purely for smearing purposes); but only three of the eight have ever been bitterly "Anti-Semitic", according to the J. Department's Red Jews.

Those listed for further persecution were the following:

George E. Deatherage, a noted engineer, with a son in the war;

Lawrence Dennis, noted writer and ex-counsul;

Charles B. Hudson, brilliant pamphleteer and writer;

George Sylvester Viereck, America's greatest poet and one of her greatest writers, German born of American parentage, cousin of the Kaiser, his two sons in the war, one died in battle;

Prescott Dennett, Pulitzer prize journalist, arrested in Rome by Mussolini for writing anti-fascist articles, served in the U. S. Army throughout the war, was in the army while on trial;

Ernest F. Elmhurst, brilliant author of "The World Hoax"—a magnificent attack on Communism and exposure of Red Jews, lifelong opponent to totalitarian government, naturalized German-American who never belonged to the Bund or any German-American organizations; and Frank W. Clark, dispatch motorcyclist in Pershing's army, served with distinction in the First division throughout World War I, in seven or eight major battle campaigns, extremely patriotic and bitter fighter against Communism. Dennis was a captain in the U. S. Army, World War I; graduate of Harvard university. Not one anti-American word or Pro-Nazi sentiment was quoted against any of these men in the farcical trial, or elsewhere.

Washington's sentiment toward this case and the Reds in the Justice Department was well expressed by Editor Frank C. Waldrop in a long editorial in the Washington "Times Herald" on the 23rd, in part as follows:

(Opening words)—"For disgrace and cheapness can you name anything by our great United States government throughout its history to equal its performance in the so-called "sedition case'?"

(Closing words)—After citing the firing of the first prosecutor, W. P. Maloney, the death of the trial judge Eicher, the firing of the final prosecutor, O. J. Rogge and the death of two defendants:

"There just was no luck in that case for anybody. And why? Because it was a case bred in malice, prosecuted in hate, and pursued in bigotry. It had purposes far wider than the mere trial of people accused of crime.

"IT WAS A DISGRACE TO AMERICA."

Open The Gates of Ellis Island and Other U. S. Concentration Camps

NEW YORK,— On November 22, 1946, a 36 year old German alien internee, Otto Espenshied, died of cancer of the intestines after he had been held behind barbed wires nearly four years as "a dangerous enemy alien" and all efforts had failed to make the U. S. Department of Justice see the light of day. Only a few days before the man's death, the doctor on Ellis Island recommended the man's instant release due to his approaching death, but red tape even interferred with that and the man died behind barbed wires.

This man had duly applied for American citizenship papers during his ten years' stay in the United States. He was married to an American girl and had an American born son. He was arrested by the F. B. I. at a time, when his wife was to become a mother a second time and was ordered interned, although his wife had to accept a job as housekeeper of a Brooklyn rooming house during her pregnancy and was denied relief or help in any shape or form, even when she severed the sinews of her right hand by falling through a window pane and since then has been practically deprived of the use of her right hand.

What did the man do to merit such punishment and inflict such suffering on his American family?

In the Spring of 1941, six months before America's entry in the World War, he wrote a letter to his parents in Germany:

"If it were not for those swine in Washington, there would be no war, or at least, there would be no more war!"

His letter, with other U. S. mail, was opened by the British at Bermuda, where the Spanish steamer carrying U. S. mail for European countries, had to put in for inspection. The letter was pilfered from the U. S. mail, was forwarded by the British censors to the F. B. I. at Washington, whereupon the Attorney General Biddle ordered the placing of this man in a U. S. concentration camp "for the duration of the war", but even now, a year and a half after complete cessation of hostilities in Europe, was still keeping him with some 300 German men and women behind barbed wires at Ellis Island.

What became of American pride during the New Deal regime that British censorship could do as they pleased with American mail? And what idiocy of the present administration to keep hundreds of German men and women, long time residents of the United States, still behind barbed wires on Ellis Island and in other U. S. concentration camps, subject to deportation to Germany!

Now, that the people of the United States have definitely expressed an undeniable support of the Republican Party, it would appear to be a matter of sound political policy, just as it has always been a matter of sound ethical principle to forthwith unbar the gates of Ellis Island and other U. S. concentration camps and send back to their families and proper jobs the many persons of German ancestry who for some years have been held in these camps on the theory that they constituted an internal re-inforcement of Germany by reason of the fact that they had neglected to take out final citizenship papers.

The circumstances alleged by the F. B. I. and the U. S. Dept. of Justice as the cause of the detention of these people, were largely accidental, and the result of their concentration on industrial activities rather than politics. Thus the 25,000,000 American citizens of German ancestry found themselves without representation.

We all know that racial elements much less useful to our country than the Germans have proven to be, have promptly plunged into our politics, and have confused our policies, without spending the time and study to find out what Americanism really means. The record in this respect speaks for itself!

Now, that the war is over a year and a half, and German citizenship in Europe is no longer a matter of the slightest danger to the United States—in fact never has been—there is no ground of practical policy, any more than of justice and humanity, that can be reasonably urged against the immediate return of these concentration camp prisoners in the United States to their families who for so many years have been deprived of their supporting labors.

Their families, just like in the Espenschied case, have suffered poverty and social demotion as a result of propagandized fears of an alleged internal German hostility which, as a matter of fact, has never manifested itself, and of which —even if it had manifested itself— the women and children of these German internees would have been entirely innocent.

Our nation cannot afford to place itself on record in opposition to a measure so strongly dictated by justice and humanity—the more so, since most of those internees were promised that no later than Armistice Day—May 7th, 1945—their families would be re-united.

Any true American should support the immediate release of those long suffering German internees on Ellis Island and other U. S. concentration camps as a measure of combined justice and humanity and industrial wisdom and sound political policy.

The Pharisees Gave Thanks

San Diego, Thursday, Nov. 28, 7:30 P. M.

Dear Gladys:

Your special delivery letter with your lovely card of best wishes for Thanksgiving day arrived this noon.

I, too, would have enjoyed having you with me today and certainly am thankful that in you I am blessed with such devoted affection which does my soul good. I have many things to be thankful for when I realize that I have Fred around and David and their mother and am getting out the paper practically without any money, just on my nerve and faith and it never stops, but like the widow's oil and flour renews itself each week that the prophet may speak his piece, and have a roof over his head.

The vegetables you planted around the house are doing well, I never pick them as I have no time to give to it but Fred uses them when he makes salads and I like them, too.

Concerning Thanksgiving Day as a celebration, you must be aware of the facts. I am an Eastern European by birth and bringing up. There are no sentimental memories connecting me with the Day as there is with Christmas or Easter. This is an American Day, but it strikes me offensively instead of favorably. It always calls forth irony and cynicism.

The first acquaintance with the Day was TURKEY. Of course, to a vegetarian it is sacrilege to "feast" by murder, on carcasses. So you will easily comprehend that my first contact with Thanksgiving Day was a revulsion against American savagery. It still is.

Today, since Fred and his mother went to Los Angeles to celebrate with the Vegetarian society at the Shoreham Hotel, I have been working, mailing out, pasting and folding the latest issue of the paper. I, too, could have been with them in L. A. But I carry no illusions about the Vegetarian society. The outfit is run by Jews who are making money out of "health" products they sell the Goyim. I miss the spiritual understanding of the Aryan concept of LIFE which makes us vegetarians. How can one expect those Mongolian and Negroid Jews to understand our way of LIFE anyway?

Of course, Fred, David, Mary Lou and Norma have yet to discover for themselves the unbridgeable gulf between white people, Negroids and Mongols, so I don't interfer; experience is the best teacher.

While working here, pasting and folding, I had your radio turned on. And it thoroughly disgusted me. Every crooner was babbling about being thankful that "we are Americans" and how much better off "we are than the people in Europe". That is the last straw.

Who is it that brought the present misery upon the people in Europe but the USA? Churchill stated after the first world war that if the Americans had minded their own damn business and stayed home, the Europeans would have arranged their own affairs, ended the war early and peace would have been concluded on terms that would not have produced Communism in Russia, Fascism in Italy and Nazism in Germany. He charged America with the guilt of meddling in family affairs and making matters worse.

Today, America carries an even heavier indictment. The devastation of Europe was accomplished by American bombs and the poverty, hunger and misery is directly the result of Potsdam, of America's interference in European squabbles in violation of every tenet laid down by the Founding Fathers and in Washington's Farewell address.

That people can be so stupid as to issue Pharisee prayers in public places.

"Oh Lord we thank Thee because we are not like the Europeans; they are in misery but we have plenty to eat and a roof over our heads."

Who financed Hitler, Stalin and loosened the Mongol hordes all over Europe? Who ruined their land? Killed their people, raped their women, introducing slave labor and now is starving them by sabotaging even the little bit of parcel post that is sent by heart-broken relatives?

Thanksgiving?

Gladys, pray for them, they don't know what they do!

Love, KOSTI.

SOLAR AIRCRAFT CO. NEWS

The new $325,000 plant of the Solar Aircraft Company, the largest factory to be completed here since V-J Day, was dedicated with impressive ceremonies.

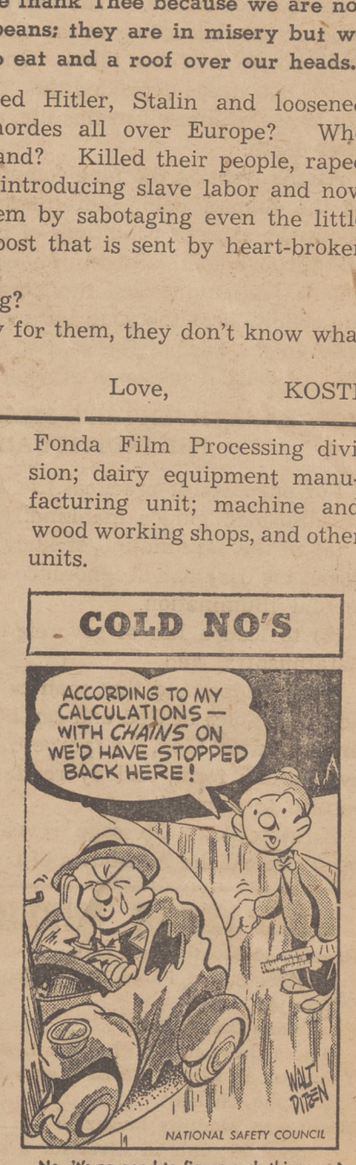
City, county officials, and leaders in the city's life attended the dedicatory ceremonies, which were held in Building 14, as the new building is known.

In a brief message, E. T. Price, Solar's president and general manager, stressed the importance of the new factory in the city's life. He also hit at selfishness on the part of any group which would attempt to upset the inter-relationship of workers and employers.

"It seems strange to me that in a world so completely tied together and so completely dependent on the mutual interchange of goods and services which we have to render that there should still remain wars and rumors of wars beyond and within our borders; that brother craftsmen should throw bombs and throttle each other over the insignificant question as to who should nail up a stage set or move a vase of flowers; that others should tie up the productive efforts of millions of people for unlimited periods over a wage issue of 1½ cents per hour; that still others threaten to let millions of people go cold and hungry at the beginning of winter to gain selfish advantages which, even now, are not yet disclosed, and at best are unimportant to the general welfare."

After the dedication, the guests were entertained at luncheon in the company's cafeteria, followed by a tour of the plant.

The new plant, which extends 680 feet along Pacific Highway, from Juniper to Laurel streets, will house the Fonda Film Processing division; dairy equipment manufacturing unit; machine and wood working shops, and other units.



No, it's no good to figure such things out after-the crash. He should have known, for instance, that tests show tire chains reduce braking distance as much as 40 or 50 per cent on ice and snow. So use 'em! But remember—chains won't replace brains. They will help a careful driver to avoid winter mishaps.
